Defendant.	)

Eric K. Schillinger, Esq., the attorney for CHRISTOPHER PENCE having moved for an additional continuance of 60 days in the above-captioned action, and Carla B. Freedman, United States Attorney for the Northern District of New York, Assistant U.S. Attorney Emmet J. - 1) The prior proceedings in this case occurred as follows:

  - a) From March 30, 2022, until May 28, 2022. (Dkt. 12.)
  - b) From June 1, 2022, until July 30, 2022. (Dkt. 14.)
  - c) August 2, 2022, until September 30, 2022. (Dkt. 16.)

g) June 9, 2023, until August 8, 2023. (Dkt. 41.)

3) The following period of post-indictment time is concurrently excluded, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(D), while the defendant's Motion to Suppress Statements and Evidence (Dkt. 21), which is fully briefed and pending a decision by the Court:

a) From December 20, 2022, through the present.

4) CHRISTOPHER PENCE has requested the continuance based on the following facts and circumstances:

a) Additional time is required for the Court to resolve the defendant's pending Motion to Suppress Statements and Evidence (Dkt. 21) – for which post-hearing briefs were submitted by the parties on July 21, 2023 – and for the parties to negotiate a pre-trial disposition and/or prepare for trial. Accordingly, the delay is necessary in order to allow the parties the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence (3161(h)(7)(B)(iv)).

5) The parties stipulate and agree that the ends of justice served by granting this continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial because additional time is required for the Court to resolve the defendant's pending Motion to Suppress Statements and Evidence (Dkt. 21) – for which post-hearing briefs were submitted by the parties on July 21, 2023 – and for the parties to negotiate a pre-trial disposition and/or prepare for trial, which will allow the parties the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence (3161(h)(7)(B)(iv)).

6) The parties stipulate and agree that a period of 60 days beginning on and including the date on which the Court signs the requested order shall be excludable under the Speedy Trial Act pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and (h)(7)(B)(iv).

7) The undersigned attorneys affirm under penalty of perjury the accuracy of the facts set forth above and apply for and consent to the proposed order set forth below.

ORDER

The Court incorporates into this Order the stipulated facts set forth above and hereby adopts them as findings.

1. The Court has considered its obligation under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) to determine whether a continuance serves the ends of justice in a manner that outweighs both the public interest and the defendant's rights. The Court finds that pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the ends of justice served by granting the requested continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial because additional time is required for the Court to resolve the defendant's pending Motion to Suppress Statements and Evidence (Dkt. 21) – for which post-hearing briefs were submitted by the parties on July 21, 2023 – and for the parties to negotiate a pre-trial disposition and/or prepare for trial, which will allow the parties the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence (18 U.S.C. § 3161(B)(iv)).

BASED ON THE STIPULATED FACTS AND THE COURT'S RELATED FINDINGS IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

A period of 60 days, beginning on and including the date of this Order shall be excludable in computing time under the Speedy Trial Act pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and (h)(7)(B)(iv) in order to give the parties the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation.
